Claude and Una met while he was attending Emory Univ. in Atlanta, GA to be a doctor. He enlisted in WWI and was attached to a unit of the British army. While serving in Germany the unit was taken prisoners by the Germans. They were in a barbed-wire compound on the battlefield. Uncle Claude told the English he was escaping when night came. The British officers objected - saying it was against the rules. When Claude went over the wire, the first person behind him was the British officer. The entire unit made it back to the Allied lines.

CHAPTER EIGHTEEN

ALEXANDER MCLENDON

Alexander McLendon is the fourth son of Daniel and Isabelle McIntosh McLendon, of N.C. and Miss.. b. 1798 Richmond Co., N.C., d. c. 1865-67 Pierce Springs, Miss., m. 1828 (1) Jean Fairley, b. c. 1809 N.C., died after 1842, probably the first part of 1843. Daughter of Judge John Fairley, b. 1777 N.C., d. 1867 Miss., and wife Isabelle McNair Fairley, b. 1790 N.C. d. 1874 Jackson Co., Miss.. She was the daughter of Neil McNair, b. 1746, d. 1830 and wife Jane McNair, b. 1758 d. 1842 Alexander m. (2) Millie Miller of Miss..

Some of the first settlers below the 31st parallel were the Fairley's of N.C., many of them only one generation from Scotland, and some born in Scotland. John Fairley and his wife Margaret Carmichael, settled on the west side of Black Creek, while his nephews, John and Peter settled on the East side of Black Creek. John and Peter were in Richmond Co., N.C., 1810 as they were neighbors of James McLendon in Steele District. In 1850 census of Perry Co., Miss., they are listed as dwelling # 214 and #215 living next to William McLendon # 213. William was the nephew of the above Alexander McLendon.

When Alexander McLendon purchased land it was in Jackson Co., Miss., and is now presently George Co., near the Fairley's rather in Greene Co., where Daniel his father lived. It is believed Daniel returned to N.C., about 1824 and died in N.C., when he sold land he owned in Anson Co., remember his son, Dennis McLendon was still living in Richmond Co.. Older brother John was already living in Jackson Co., so it is logical that Alexander and Allen would live near.

Between the period of 1815 to 1828 Alexander was listed in Jackson Co., as being the owner of two (2) slaves. A tax was levied on each slave, ranging at various times from thirty five to seventy five cents.

In 1826, 1827 Alexander McLendon was assessor and Collector for Jackson Co., Miss.. Land at this time was assessed at one dollar per acre, but the levy rate was low, one fourth ($\frac{1}{4}$) of one percent, that the yield was only ten cents for forty acres. Other revenue were: a tax on all free persons of color pleasurable carriages, watches, clocks, and silverware. Poll taxes levied against all men between the ages of twenty one and fifty, a tax on all money loaned, and a tax on all slaves. Thus, we see being an assessor was a demanding job, not only did you assess the tax, you also had to collect it.

1830 Census of Jackson Co., Miss..
Alexander McLendon, 1 male under 10, (son Kenneth) 2 males 20 to 40, (probably John and Allen,) 1 female 20 to 40, wife Jane Fairley, 1 female over 60, Mother, Isabelle McIntosh.

From the record on the opposite page, it indicates the female over 60 is the mother of Alexander, being old in age, and living with her son. It also suggests that Daniel was dec'd.

In 1840 Alexander McLendon and his wife, Jane Fairley McLendon had removed to Clarke Co., Miss., and settled around what is now called Pierce's Springs, which is the Old McLendon homestead. In 1830 better land opened up in the Northern part of the State, this probably prompted Alexander's move, him being ambitious and wanting the more familiar soil like N.C. rather than the swampy land on the Gulf Coast.

On the fifth day of January, 1841 Alexander McLendon of Clarke Co., Miss., deposited with the General Land Office of the United States, a certificate (#4309) of the Register of the land Office in Augusta, Miss.. Whereby, it appeared that full payment had been made by the McLendon. According to the provisions of the Act of Congress of the 24th of April, 1820, entitled "An Act making further provisions for the sale of the public land," He was given and granted 35 acres, with the rights and privileges to have and to hold unto himself and his heirs, in testimony whereof, signed Martin Van Buren, President of the United States of America.

The same tract of land as stated above was sold to Campbell McKay on the 25th of February, 1842, it was signed by Alexander McLendon and his wife, Jane Fairley McLendon. This document proves that Jane McLendon died after the above date, when Justice of the Peace, Benjamin Estes, of Clarke Co., witnessed her mark.

On the 6th of January, 1843 Alexander McLendon, deeded, Susan Barlow 37 Acres of land in Clarke Co., this is the only act of sale that his wife, Jane did not sign with him. Witness was James Bedwell. All other land transactions, was signed by both Alexander and his wife, Jane or Millie Miller McLendon, his second wife, first being, 1844. The only other document that was signed singular was 16 June, 1869 when Millie Miller McLendon gave deed of trust for one (1) bay mare, one (1) yoke of oxen, the entire years crops to J.P. Hayes of Shubuta, Miss., for advancing supplies to her, until the crops were harvested and sold.

In 1849 Alexander McLendon was Judge for the Probate Court, in Clarke Co., December term in 1849 for Clarke Co., State of Miss., in the town of Quitman. On the first Monday of the month being the third, one of the cases before him was; Thomas E. Moore, who petitioned for letter of guardianship of the minor heirs of William Barlow. Serving as Sheriff of Clarke Co., was Rosier W. Davis. Nine and one half years later, Rhoda Ann Barlow, became the daughter-in-law of Alexander McLendon, marrying his eldest son, Kenneth O. McLendon.

- 9-7 Victor Gilbert McLendon, son of Albert Gallatin Brown and wife, Lillie Hooks McLendon. b. 23 June, 1907 Clarke Co., Miss., d. 12 June, 1959 Miss., m. 10 June, 1933 Choctaw Co., Ala., to Lennie Lois Johnson, b. 26 June, 1915 Choctaw Co., daughter of Berry A. and Elizabeth Downey Johnson. Victor and Lennie Lois McLendon were the parents of (three) issues. Lois lives in Laurel, Jones Co., Miss..

- 10-1 Victor Gilbert McLendon, 11, b. 10 August, 1935 Miss.. m. (1) June, 1957 Clarke Co., Miss., to Jane Keys, b. 1937 Clarke Co., daughter of Jessie and Mary Hegwood Keys. They had three issues. Victor m. (2) 2 April, 1975 Choctaw Co., Ala., to Linda Irby, b. 20 January, 1946 Clarke Co., Miss.. Daughter of Ralph Wilson and Corine Mazingo Irby. Victor and Linda live in Quitman, Miss., and have one (1) son.

- 11-1 Michael Gilbert McLendon, b. 14 July, 1960 Miss.. Single.
11-2 Jeffery Allen McLendon, b. 6 July, 1967 Miss.. Single.
11-3 Victor Ian McLendon, b. 21 July, 1967 Miss..

Victor Gilbert McLendon and wife, Linda Irby McLendon had one son:

- 11-1 Justin Sloane McLendon, b. 23 July, 1978 Clarke Co., Miss..
10-2 Hilda Ann McLendon, b. 28 March, 1940 Miss., m. 11 February, 1961 Laurel, Miss., to Milton Massey Richardson, son of R.S. Richardson. Milton M. and Hilda A. Richardson had one son. m. (2) Cecil G. Johnson, No issue from this marriage. Victor was adopted by Cecil Johnson.

- 11-1 Victor Mark McLendon Johnson.

- 10-3 Linda Sue McLendon, b. 1 May, 1943 Miss., m. 30 July, 1965 Ellisville, Miss., to Bobby Ray Hardy, b. 26 July, 1940 Newton, Miss.. Son of Malcolm and Nellie Rowell Hardy. m. (2) 8 April, 1983 Mobile, Ala., to Donald G. Clunan, b. 9 July, 1948. Son of John E. and Eloise Clunan. Donald and Linda live in Mobile, Ala..

- 9-8 Louis Leon McLendon, b. 28 April, 1911 Miss., m. 11 May, 1936 to Margaret Shaphill in Washington. They had one issue.

- 10-1 Albert James McLendon, b. 6 February, 1938 Los Angeles, Ca..

This concludes the families of Alexander McLendon and wife, Millie Miller McLendon. All descendants of Alexander McLendon have a direct lineage to Scotland and Dennis The Immigrant, chapter one.

CHAPTER THIRTY

ALLEN MCLENDON

7-5

Allen McLendon, son of Daniel McLendon and wife Isabelle McLendon of N.C., and Greene Co., Miss.. b. c. 1799 Richmond Co., N.C., d. 1869-70 Clarke Co., Miss.. m. Elizabeth Bedwell, b. 1812 Ala., d. ? Allen and Elizabeth m. about 1835 probably in Jackson Co., Miss., since this is where Allen lived. In 1830 Allen is believed in the house hold of brother, Alexander along with his mother, Isabelle McIntosh McLendon in Jackson Co., Miss. It is known from State records that Allen was living in Jackson Co., Miss., in 1827 when he was a Justice of The Peace along with, Thomas Tucker, Edmund Moss, and William Graham of that county. His brother, Alexander was Tax collector and Accessor of Jackson Co., in 1827. November 18, 1833 17th Session to 19 January, 1935 called Session. Allen McLendon was a member of the Lower House of the Legislature, Jackson Co., Miss.. This tells us that he was a man of influence. In 1840 he is found in Clarke Co., Miss., perhaps because the land was better suited for farming.

1850 census of Clarke Co., Miss.. Dwelling # 297

Allen McLendon	50	b. N.C.
Elizabeth McLendon	38	b. Ala..
James McLendon	14	b. Miss..
Lucy McLendon	12	b. Miss..
Sarah McLendon	9	b. Miss..
Elizabeth McLendon	7	b. Miss..
John McIntosh	24	b. Miss.. Physician

Since Allen McLendon's mother was a McIntosh before her marriage to Daniel McLendon, one may assume, John McIntosh is a relative.

It is not known where Allen and Elizabeth Bedwell McLendon is buried, probably in Clarke Co., Miss., since this is where they lived in their later years. Allen d. in Clarke Co., Miss..

On 11 May, 1869 Allen McLendon of Clarke Co., Miss., sells to S.W. Chapman, one (1) bay mare, mule mouse colored and about nine (9) years old, called Jinny. One small horse with a white face and about nine years old, called Ball, for the sum of $10.00 paid to me cash in hand. This same deed also states that he owes William McDonald and W.G. Kirkland one hundred and fifty dollars. advanced to him until his crops could be gathered and sold.

The above five children show on the 1850 census is the only known children of Allen McLendon and wife Elizabeth Bedwell McLendon. In 1860 census of Clarke Co., Allen and Elizabeth is found in dwelling #297 and living alone, no children in household.

Dear Pat,

Excuse the delay in answering your letter of July 15. I don't have time for active genealogical research but I do try to keep up with correspondence.

I looked in my workbooks and I find nothing on Lemuel Breland who married Elizabeth Black; nor John Black; nor Hugh and Sarah Black.

William McLendon b. 1822 with wife Mary b. 1823 could be William R. McLendon 1815-1908 and his wife; "Polly" Harvison. Reference: Leroy F. Eastes, Rt. 2, Box 74, Gulfport, Ms. 39501. If so, it is probably "Ellen" rather than Eran b. 1846 and she married William Lambert, apparently; and they are on the 1860 census with the McLendons.

Now, the John Thomas is "mine". He is John Douglas Thomas b. ca 1830 d. after 1909 married Margaret Catherine McLendon b. ca 1837 d. 20 Dec 1909. Their children and their mates:

John Elexar Alexander b. 1858 d. 1919 married Missouri Dale

Debbie McLendon

After living in Pascagoula for 13 years, Debbie McLendon moved to unincorporated Jackson County, or what she calls "the country." McLendon lives on two acres with her husband and three black Labradors. Cutting the grass of the expansive yard of her new home has become one of her hobbies, and she also enjoys motorcycle riding and inspecting antique cars, McLendon said. The community relations manager for Northrop Grumman is responsible for being the liaison between the company and the communities its employees live in, she said.
